

QUIZ - 2

(1.) What is the primary goal of UI/UX design?

Ans. To make a product easy and enjoyable to use.

(2.) What is the importance of wireframing in the design process?

Ans. It helps to define the layout and functionality of a product before it is built.

(3.) What does HTML stand for?

Ans. Hypertext Markup Language

(4.) Which of the following is NOT a JavaScript framework?

Ans. Ruby on Rails

(5.) What is the primary use of CSS?

Ans. To create the layout and design of a webpage

(6.) What is the primary use of a database in web development?

Ans. To store and retrieve data for a web application

(7.) What is the purpose of an API in web development?

Ans. To provide a way for different applications to communicate with each other

(8.) What is the role of a backend developer?

Ans. To create and manage the server-side of an application, including the database, server-side logic, and APIs

(9.) What is the primary purpose of a portfolio in the field of design and technology?

Ans. To showcase the individual's skills and experience to potential employers or clients

To document the individual's learning process and progress

To provide a platform for the individual to share their work with the public

(10.) Why is a portfolio important for a job seeker?

Ans. It demonstrates their skills and experience to potential employers

It showcases their attention to detail and ability to showcase their work in a professional manner

It highlights their ability to communicate their design process and decisions

(11.) What does CSS stand for?

Ans. Cascading Style Sheet.

(12.) What does JS stand for?

Ans. JavaScript